

Satisfy your sweet tooth this festive season

If you are thinking of sweets this Gangaur, then Agarwal Caterers would satisfy your craving for Rajasthani desserts. Started by Shankar Lal Agarwal in 1980, the caterers have maintained their quality for over three decades now. They have remained consistent taste-wise and also constantly evolved over the years, bringing mouth-watering innovations to their products. They have now ventured into the field of wedding catering.

Food is one of the most remembered details of a wedding, and these caterers try to make it remarkable. "Since the past decades, Agarwal Caterers has maintained its legacy of churning out an assortment of sweets which have passed on from generation to generation," said Vipin Agarwal, director, Agarwal Caterers.

Delicious Balushahi, luscious Ghevar, chewy Chogni Ke Laddu, mouth-watering Doodh Ke Laddu and Feeni are some of their signature dishes – inimitable and original.

Gangaur is never quite complete without Ghevars – that syrupy, flavoured sweet filled with condiments. The toppings have definitely varied over the years, but not the taste.

Sweet tooth or not, pop one into your mouth and feel the difference. This year, Agarwal caterers are offering the traditional Ghevars with contemporary toppings like strawberry, chocolate and pineapple.
